

AGENDA ITEM NUMBER 3:
FY 2023 OPERATING BUDGET
RESOLUTION NO. 2022-13

Mr. Daniels presented the item and noted that we must improve upon on the management side by not coding capital expenditures on the operating side. He explained that regarding the operating side, COCC is going to be in the black based on additional revenue sources from the development side. He stated that an assessment of our financials discovered that some expenses were not classified properly, and the COCC became the “catch-all” for all other miscellaneous expenses. Mr. Daniels further noted that staff will go back and reclassify those expenses. There was discussion regarding increased insurance rates. Commissioner Barron made a motion to approve the budget and Commissioner Brown seconded the motion. No were abstentions or opposition noted. No further discussion.

MOTION PASSED

AGENDA ITEM NUMBER 4:
FY 2023 HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER (HCV)/PROJECT BASED VOUCHERS (PBV) PAYMENT
STANDARDS
RESOLUTION NO. 2022-14

Ms. Mejia presented the item. She explained that the new fair market rents are published every October. HUD has recognized rising rental rates. She further noted that the agency will adjust payment standards. The adjustment is 110% of the fair market rent. The agency is approved to increase veteran vouchers up to 120% of the fair market rent to identify housing in neighborhoods that offer more opportunity and less incentive for the other factors that maybe led to homelessness. Commissioner Banks made a motion to approve the item and Commissioner Payton seconded the motion. No abstentions or oppositions noted. No further discussion.

HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER-CITY OF NEW ROADS PERMANENT TRANSFER
RESOLUTION NO. 2022-17

Ms. Mejia presented the item. She stated that we talked about the possibility of taking over the city of New Roads Housing Choice Voucher program. She continued to explain that you have to submit a request to HUD. They take them twice a year. The earliest opportunity for us is to submit it for October 1st. If approved, the transfer of the program would occur January 1, 2023. She further stated that we are assisting the city, answering questions and there onsite, occasionally, to help them out with their program. She continued to state that New Roads does not have the staffing or the expertise to be able to run the program internally. She explained that this is a procedural move, and a board resolution is required. The parties must submit letters to HUD. The City of New Roads is required to submit an audit to HUD for approval and then transfers will begin January 1, 2023. Commissioner Barron made a motion to approve the item and Commissioner Payton seconded the motion. No abstentions or oppositions noted. No further discussion.
